WESTERN HUDSON VALLEY PROFESSIONAL HORSEMEN'S ASSOCIATION

The Western Hudson Valley PHA is one of 15 chapters throughout the United States in 2010. The purpose of the professional horsemen's association is to give aid and sustenance to needy members; to provide educational aid to professional members and children of professional members through a scholarship fund; to promote and foster interest in the horse industry; and to aid in the protection and care of horses through education.

Over its 68-year history, the PHA has contributed to many of its needy members and numerous organizations and charities.

The Western Hudson Valley PHA strives to raise the quality of horse shows within the Hudson Valley region by offering classes in different divisions in which members may compete for year-end awards.
